

The Larynx # 151

Date
1988

Primary Maker
Larry Bell

Medium
mixed media on black canvas

Description
This Bell painting is one of the earliest Mirage Paintings. The later Mirage works were larger. Bands of gray and lavender lines swirl through the lower portion of the work. Calligraphic markings are along the right side overlapping the black and white metallic patterned pieces collaged and fused to the canvas. The main underlying pattern is black with many random short white irregular marks.

Dimensions
21"H x 30" W