Date

2003

Primary Maker

Larry Bell

Medium

mixed media on watercolor paper

Description

This collage abstraction is part of the Fraction Series created from 1996 to 2000 and consisting of over 10,000 images. The images are made from recycled works. Earlier collages were laminated together under heat and vacuum creating spontaneous images through the chemistry of the components. This fraction has a pink form as the central feature, which spreads out to the left. At bottom mid-center are red and blue forms.
