Description

undulate in the background; a small portion of the clear sky is visible. This is a typical, bucolic New Mexico scene carefully rendered. - Judith Kendall, I.S.A., AM
