

Untitled (Taos street scene)

Date

1920

Primary Maker

Walter A. Bailey

Medium

Oil on canvas

Description

In this traditional, impressionistic representation of a Taos winter street scene, adobe dwellings are staggered diagonally on the left, and banked by snow and a dirt lane. The New Mexico foothills are held in deep blue, atmospheric shadows in the background.

Cottonwoods, with remaining leaves of autumn, sit behind the structures. Subtle tonal contrasts achieve a modernist impression.

Dimensions

27 x 31 in. (68.6 x 78.7 cm)