

Mondo Toxico

Date

1992

Primary Maker

Ron Cooper

Medium

silkscreen on fabric

Description

The composition of the subject is the form of a monkey holding an ancient Egyptian lion. It is silk-screened in black on to a red fabric. The work is mounted on a circular wooden hoop. Mondo is Italian for world and is also used as huge in slang. Toxico refers to poison or anything chemically damaging, death. Mondo Toxico= World poison.

Dimensions

14 1/2" diameter