

O' (Black Moon)

Date

2009

Primary Maker

Dora Dillistone

Medium

ink and graphite on canvas

Description

Created in shades of black, the ink and graphite work has as the subject a round planet or moon like form with indications of craters and landmasses. Using elemental materials Dillistone creates a visual vocabulary where process and subject have equal weight.

Dimensions

48" H x 48" W