Description

The black outline of one sidewall of a house is set against a deep purple and blue sky. The silhouette of a palm tree is visible mid-right. A large three paned window lit from inside is at the lower left. A naked woman lies on a purple rug, her breasts and face facing out of the middle window panel. The head of a male behind her peers just above her buttocks. The wall in the room is pink. This print is Price erotica.
