

Bridge to Taos

Date
2009

Primary Maker
Jim Wiley

Medium
carved and stained cottonwood

Description
A design carved into cottonwood and stained is the subject matter. The work is composed of a series of large diamond shapes, carved in white with smaller dark diamonds in the center of the larger diamonds. The left and right 2” edges of the work are alternating light and dark carved lines. The frame consists of a dark stained wood with carved small squares around the edges.

Dimensions
12"H x 14" W