

Tequila Cup

Date

c. 1970-1980's

Primary Maker

Ken Price

Medium

ceramic

Description

During the early seventies Price created a series of Tequila cups which were also used to test glazes. Price frequently gave them to houseguests and friends. There were also a part of the exhibition "Happy's Curios" This subject cup is a burnished brown at the bottom, and red on the top. There is an incised spider pattern (1.5") on one side.

Dimensions

1 3/4" H x 1 5/8" W x 2 1/4" D