

Tequila Cup

Date

c. 1970-1980's

Primary Maker

Ken Price

Medium

ceramic

Description

During the early seventies Price created a series of Tequila cups which were also used to test glazes. Price frequently gave them to houseguests and friends. There were also a part of the exhibition "Happy's Curios" The exterior glaze of the Tequila cup is beige with a darker green-brown interior. A yellow snake pattern is at the front.

Dimensions

1 3/4" H x 1 5/8" W x 2 1/4" D